

Creative Writing Group

Take Off is running a creative group to support positive mental wellbeing. Our group offers a safe space to try something new. The group is led by what you want to learn, and we've covered poetry, story writing, monologue and playwriting.

The group runs fortnightly on Thursdays from 2-4pm at The Landmark Centre in Deal.

For any further information, please feel free to get in contact using the details here or use the contact form on our website.

A full list of our groups can be found on our website.
